SOCIAL INFRASTRUCTURE

“People forge bonds in places that have healthy social infrastructures -- not because they set out to build community, but because when people engage in sustained, recurrent interaction, particularly while doing things they enjoy, relationships inevitably grow.”

BELONGING THROUGH A CULTURE OF DIGNITY
The Keys to Successful Equity Implementation

Floyd Cobb
John Krownapple

Foreword by Brenda CampbellJones
“Inclusion is not about identity diversity as much as it’s about our response to the already existing diversity in all of its forms. We respond with inclusion by changing our culture to ensure all people feel that they belong, not in spite of their differences but because of them. In the process, everyone is honored and feels welcome, not by accident but by design. In fact, inclusion is about design, the process through which we (as a community) intentionally co-create the environment. Inclusion is about people partnering with one another to change the culture so that everyone experiences access and unconditional belonging. “
